THE GOLD ROAD TO COMPLIANCE

Helping authors navigate the NIH Public Access Policy

1 START

Is your article funded by an NIH Institute or Center? Click here to find out.

2 Ensure that you cite funding in the acknowledgements section of your manuscript.

3 Submit manuscript to chosen journal. If prompted, answer any funding questions.

4 Sign and submit the copyright license agreement and enter NIH as your funder.

This is sent by Wiley's Author Licensing Service or by the journal's editorial office.

5 Complete the OnlineOpen Ordering Form, at which time you also submit payment.

6 Upon online publication, the final version of your article will be made open access on Wiley Online Library.

7 FINISH

Upon publication in an issue, Wiley sends the PDF and XML version of your article to PubMed Central.
